

In the German advance toward Libau, the Teutons retaliated for the incendiarism of the Russians in Eastern Prussia by setting fire to many of the towns and villages in their path. The picture shows the Russian town of Szwalie going up in flames as the poor inhabitants flee with their scant goods. German officers and soldiers are observing the effects of their work.

SINKING OF BRITISH BATTLESHIP MAJESTIC

The sinking British battleship Majestic photographed in the Dardanelles three minutes after she was struck by a German torpedo. Her torpedo nets are out and the crew are scrambling down the sides. "As soon as she was torpedoed," wrote a French officer, "she heeled over in an alarming fashion until she had a list of about 45 degrees. Everything on deck fell or slid with a tremendous din. But there was not a single instant of panic. Four minutes after the explosion the Majestic turned completely over and went down."

LONDON WOMEN AS FIRE FIGHTERS

Another testimonial to the fact that the women of Great Britain are rapidly accustoming themselves to the new order of things, wherein they have taken the places in a great many walks of life vacated by the men who have gone to the front, is this photograph. In a London draper's shop the girls have taken the places of the men who composed the fire brigade of the establishment. During the drills, which are taking place daily, they answer the call as quickly as did the male members and they are as capable of handling the hose and nozzle in a stubborn blaze as any male fire fighter.

NEW FRENCH PERISCOPE RIFLE

NEW STUYVESANT MEMORIAL

On order from the government of Holland, the Dutch sculptor, Toon Dupuis, has made this bronze bust of Petrus Stuyvesant, who from 1646 to 1664 was director general of the New Netherlands, afterward New York state. It is to be presented to New York city on the third centenary of its founding and will be placed in St. Mark's Episcopal church on the Bowery, where Stuyvesant is buried. The bust was cast recently in Belgium by special permission of the German military authorities now ruling in that country.

NOBLEMAN IN A WORKSHOP

Men of all ranks are responding to the call of Minister of Munitions Lloyd-George and helping in the manufacture of war supplies. The photograph shows Lord Norbury, one of England's wealthiest noblemen, at the lathe in an aeroplane factory, where he has "taken a job" which pays him seven pence an hour in order to encourage others.
